

Gov. Fitzgerald Makes Possible Winter Sports Aid

Winter Park Assured of Addition To Needed Buildings

Word from Lansing that Grayling Winter Sports Assn., Inc., is going to receive state aid toward the construction of buildings at the winter park, that are so badly needed, met with wild enthusiasm on the part of the Association officers and members. This lets in a ray of bright sunshine, for those of us who have this project next to our hearts, now that there is to be a way to accomplish this task that either had to be accomplished or this feature might have to be abandoned.

To go out and ask our citizens to subscribe several thousands of dollars for the construction of suitable buildings to accommodate the crowds that come here during the winter season seemed to be asking a little too much for our people to bear. For fourteen years Grayling citizens have supported the winter sports projects generously and without complaint and now that the winter enthusiasts of Michigan are depending upon us to keep up the good work, a little outside aid will be most welcome.

Credit for this is due Governor Fitzgerald, P. J. Hoffmaster, director of the Conservation department of Michigan and officers of the Izaak Walton League by their able presentation of the matter to the state departments.

The Winter Sports Association board of directors, delegated Royal A. Wright, manager, of our local firm, the National Log Construction Co., to take this matter up with the state authorities. Mr. Wright enlisted the aid of R. J. Gillespie, state president of the Izaak Walton League and Mr. H. F. Harper, past state president. Together they appeared before Governor Fitzgerald and Mr. Hoffmaster. The matter was gone into in every detail with the result that funds for the construction of the needed buildings are now assured.

Mr. Wright will go to Lansing first of next week for further conference on the matter with Governor Fitzgerald and P. J. Hoffmaster, director of conservation. Later the facts will be laid before the Conservation Commission for final action. Details for construction of buildings ings and plans for operation of the winter park will have to be worked out. Tentatively it appears that the Conservation Department will take over the property of the park but they, for the present at least, will expect our local Winter Sports Association to manage the activities of the park.

This will provide the people coming here for winter sports with comfort and convenience that the park has been unable to provide in the past. Also the capacity of the popular toboggan slides will be at least double that of former years, and the length of the slides will be extended. Ski trails will be more definitely planned with shelter stations at suitable distances apart, adding a lot of pleasure to this part of the park activities. And bobsled trails will be improved and extended and the big ski jump will be enlarged and perfected so that it may be the equal of any in the country.

The local committees have many plans in view that are sure to meet with overwhelming enthusiasm by those who enjoy this ever-increasing popular winter pastime. We may but recall the big success of winter sports in Grayling during the last season. Thousands of people flocked here over every week end of the season. Special trains from Detroit, Bay City, Saginaw and other communities brot in tremendous crowds for seven successive weeks, and many people had to be left behind because of being unable to get passenger reservations on the trains. The crowds literally took the city by storm and thousands of gaily clad winter enthusiasts revelled in this most healthful pastime. And thruout the entire season there wasn't a single incident to mar the pleasure of the crowds. Happier people never assembled and there was nothing but praise for the fine hospitality the visitors received while here.

At this time was in spite of the fact that the shelter buildings were utterly unable to take care of the crowds. Everyone seemed to make the best of the accommodations we were able to offer and there was little complaint.

Now that the matter of more and better building accommodations is to be remedied, together with various details of expansion planned, nothing can keep Grayling from continuing to be the "Capital of Winter Sports."

Free Safety Matinee Next Monday

TO ORGANIZE SAFETY CLUBS AMONG BOYS AND GIRLS

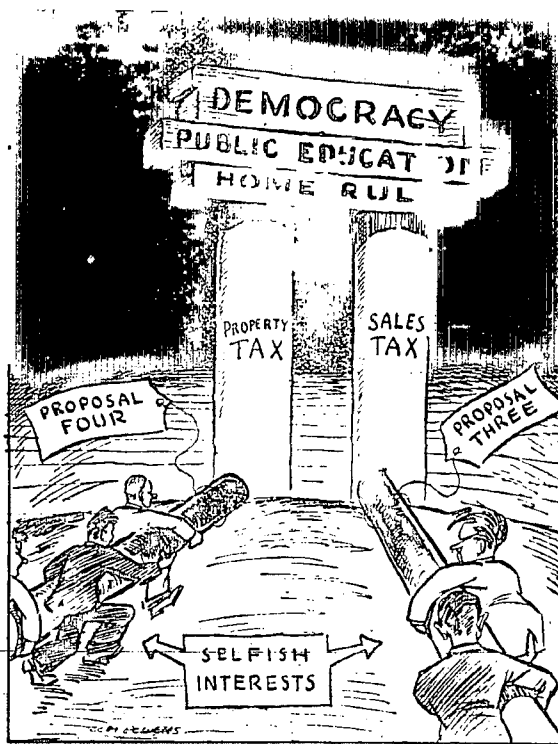

George Olson, manager of the Rialto theatre, has just announced that he will give a free show for the children of Grayling next Monday, Oct. 26, at 3:45 p. m. This matinee is to be presented in cooperation with the Michigan State Police and the Superintendent of Schools under the sponsorship of the National Youth Administration. Mr. Olson has set the time for the show at 3:45 p. m. in order that the boys and girls may have plenty of time to walk from school to the theatre.

Two safety films will be shown in addition to comedies and short subjects. "The Bad Master," which vividly shows the results of careless practices among children, and "Saving Seconds," another excellent safety picture which will prove equally interesting and instructive. Tom Carroll, supervisor for the National Youth Administration who has been organizing safety clubs among the children of northern Michigan, will be present to make an announcement of particular interest to the boys and girls.

The spirit which is being shown by the management of the Rialto theatre in their efforts to stimulate safety consciousness among the children of Grayling is certainly commendable and should receive more than passing attention.

During 1935, according to records compiled by the National Safety Council, over 35,000 persons were killed and approximately 850,700 injured non-fatally in automobile accidents in the United States. Almost a third of this number killed were children under fifteen years of age. To be more exact, 500 children were killed as occupants of cars in collisions; 4,850 more lost their lives in motor car accidents of all kinds, and 3,700 were killed as pedestrians. Of the 3,700 children who met death as pedestrians, 1,270 were little tots under four years of age. Hundreds of these children were struck down and killed by automobiles in towns not as large as Grayling.

Thus realizing the danger which surrounds the children of today due to hazardous traffic conditions, we should all become safety-minded and unite our efforts in helping children to understand that streets and highways are made for automobiles, trucks and traffic vehicles and not for boys and girls to play in or walk across carelessly.

Don't Wreck Democracy!

The real estate tax and the sales tax are the chief revenues, respectively, for local and state government in Michigan. Proposals Three and Four of the state constitution amendments to be voted upon November 3 would destroy or cripple these revenues. Proposal Three would exempt the sales tax on certain foods and thus take away at least $12,000,000 of state school aid, old age pensions, and welfare funds. Proposal Four would exempt real and personal property from almost all taxation and thus wipe out nearly all revenues for local support of government and schools, a loss of approximately $127,000,000 annually.

KIWANIS CLUB HEARS HEALTH DIRECTOR

Joseph Maier, of Kalkaska, district health director, was the speaker at the Kiwanis luncheon Wednesday. The program was in charge of the club agricultural committee of which Amos Hunter is chairman. Mr. Maier deplored the fact that farmers of this county took no interest in milk hygiene. He pointed out that the milk of some of our people is not fit for drinking and that the raising of alfalfa and assurance of excellent conditions for dairying.

During the short time he has been serving in the district he had observed that Crawford county farmers gave too little attention to having either milk cattle or beef cattle, and that no good results may be had by trying to dairy with beef cattle, and no good results in trying to raise beef from milk cattle.

He related the result of inspection of local eating and refreshment places and urged that sanitary measures be passed controlling sanitary measures affecting our public places.

He told of the excellent work Dr. Beardsch had done in the children's health fund and regretted that the Couzens fund had transferred him to East Tawas. Within a few months his place will be filled by Dr. Toefler of Houghton.

Election of Officers.—In the annual election of officers, O. P. Schumann was elected president and Charles E. Moore, vice president. The following members were elected on the board of directors: Dr. C. G. Clippert, Amos Hunter, Dr. C. R. Keyport, Frank Bennett, Roy O. Milnes, Royal A. Wright and T. P. Peterson.

To Talk on Amendments.—Next week Mr. Benedict will be the speaker and he will discuss the much discussed amendments that must come up before the voter November 3rd.

In order to give the public the benefit of Mr. Benedict's presence in the city, the Kiwanis club is sponsoring a public meeting in the School auditorium next week Wednesday night—October 28th, at 8:00 o'clock. The public is urged to attend this evening meeting.

CHARLES JACKSON PASSED AWAY

Charles Jackson, Democratic candidate for Sheriff of Crawford county, and fireman at the Kerry & Hanson flooring mill, passed away at his home early Saturday morning, following a weeks illness with pneumonia.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the home and interment was in Elmwood cemetery. Rev. Edgar Flory officiated and Carl Jensen, Frank LaVack, Le. Cannon, Jack Panenback, T. SanCarter and Nick McManr were pallbearers.

The deceased was 49 years of age and was born at Mt. Morris, Mich. He first came to Grayling in 1907 and was at that time employed at one of the T-Town mills.

In 1910, he was united in marriage to Emma Knight, of this city, and three years later they moved to Flint, where they made their home for several years. Becoming interested in farming, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson came back to Crawford county and located in Maple Forest in 1927, occupying a small farm which was located near the Rufus Edmonds home for two years. Since that time they had made their home in this city.

Mr. Jackson leaves a great many friends to mourn his untimely demise. As a candidate for sheriff of Crawford county, Mr. Jackson's honesty and his fairness to his opponent has been an inspiration to his fellow candidates.

Until 1929 Mr. Jackson was an active member of the I.O.O.F. lodge; the depression making it necessary for him to discontinue his membership.

Surviving, besides the widow, are Mr. Jackson's mother, Mrs. Nellie Mason, of Mt. Mercy Hospital On Approved List

AM. COLLEGE OF SURGEONS RECOGNIZES EFFICIENCY OF LOCAL HOSPITAL

Grayling Mercy Hospital management and staff physicians are pleased over the re-endorsement of our hospital by the American College of Surgeons. This is an honor that comes to but 37 hospitals in the entire state of Michigan, and is shared with Mercy Hospital and Sanitarium of Marquette and Traverse City hospital, the distinction of being the only ones approved in Northern Michigan.

Grayling people and those families making their homes in this northern section of Michigan, are indeed fortunate in having accessible for their use a hospital that is so well equipped as to merit the approval of the American College of Surgeons.

Medical practice and hospital service in the United States and Canada today are giving the people of these two great nations the best that medical science has to offer, declared Dr. George Crile of Cleveland, chairman of the Board of Regents of the American College of Surgeons, which opened its twenty-sixth annual Clinical Congress at Philadelphia Monday. "The American College of Surgeons is dedicated to the improvement of our hospital system and medical practice," said Dr. Crile, "and through its requirements for approval of hospitals, it stimulates those institutions to contribute to the advancement of medical science as well as provide proper care for the sick and injured, and teach health regulations for the prevention of disease, so that hospitals may better fulfill their sacred duty of saving human lives."

One out of every 15 persons throughout the United States and Canada was a patient in a hospital last year. Today there are approximately 800,000 persons in hospitals in the United States and various ailments or diseases. Inasmuch as no person can foretell when he may need hospital care, knowing about hospitals in times such as these is extremely important, and actually constitutes a measure of preparedness. Each year the American College of Surgeons publishes a list of approved hospitals with which the public should be thoroughly familiar.

Explanation of the approved list of hospitals was made at the opening of the Congress by Dr. Malcolm T. MacEachern, Associate Director of the American College of Surgeons, who has charge of the Hospital Standardization movement. Relating its history, development, and progress, Dr. MacEachern stated: "The Hospital Standardization movement was inaugurated nineteen years ago by the American College of Surgeons, now comprising approximately 12,000 leading surgeons in the United States and Canada, for the purpose of encouraging, assisting, and guiding hospitals to meet certain definite requirements for the proper care of patients. At that time only 89 hospitals in the United States and Canada could measure up to the requirements. This number has now increased to 2,567 or 72.2 per cent of all hospitals of 25 beds and over caring for acute diseases. More than 49,000 individual surveys of hospitals have been completed by the American College of Surgeons at its own expense, a mammoth task performed solely for the protection and benefit of the public.

Since the inauguration of the Hospital Standardization movement the death rate in approved hospitals has been cut in half. Risk in major surgical operations has been reduced to a minimum. Methods of administering anesthetics have greatly improved, and the treatment of cancer, gonorrhea, fractures, and other serious conditions is vastly more effective. Moreover, during the past ten years, the average stay of patients has been reduced, one half in approved hospitals."

OPENS FRUIT AND PRODUCE STORE

Walter Harwood and Fred W. Tatro have opened a fruit and produce store in the former Tremble property on Cedar street and are open for business Friday.

Mr. Harwood says that they started this business last June, trucking the product from Bay City, Saginaw and Detroit and filling local orders direct. He says they are getting fresh fruits and produce daily in the summer time and three times weekly in winter, thus assuring fresh stock for their customers. They will sell at wholesale and at retail.

The Tremble building was purchased by these men and Mr. Harwood will reside there for the present, but plans to remodel the structure for business use only. Their new store will be open for business daily.

Held Dem. Conference In Grayling

Grayling was chosen as the meeting place Sunday afternoon, of Democratic committeemen, of Michigan, and those from 19 of the 22 counties scheduled to meet here were in attendance.

The meeting, held at the court house, was purely of a business nature and, although it was not closed to the public, the people of this locality showed their good will by making a small representation in order to prevent crowding those attending from outside counties. Over one hundred people were in attendance.

Edmund C. Shields, of Lansing, National committeeman of the Democratic committee, took charge of the meeting. He outlined the method of procedure to be followed throughout the campaign, leaving the discussion open to criticisms and advice by the county committeemen. He also gave representatives the opportunity to bring problems confronting their district open to discussion.

Because of the large attendance and the interest manifest by the committeemen, it was decided that such a meeting be held on frequent occasions—at either of the four divisions, comprised of districts in the southeastern, southwestern, northern parts of the State and in the upper peninsula.

The meeting was held at 5:00 o'clock and lasted about 2 1/2 hours.

Democratic Notes

Frank Murphy, Democratic candidate for Governor, visited friends here Sunday enroute to Lansing from Marquette. He was unable to remain for the meeting, as he was scheduled for a speech at Lansing.

Some 50 women attended the meeting of the Women's democratic club at the courthouse last evening and listened to an interesting address by Mrs. Clara Sargent of West Branch. A full account of the meeting will appear in next week's issue.

what Irvin Cobb thinks about:

Lloyd George Vs. Pershing, VERNALIS, CALIF.

That shell of a once great mentality which is David Lloyd George may be right when he says in his latest book that Gen. John Pershing "was quivering with suspicion that the British and French meant to rob him of his army."

A correspondent in France in 1918, I happened to know that that was exactly what the British and French did try to do — to break up the A. E. F.'s divisions for absorption into their own commands and thereby destroy its integrity as a consolidated fighting force, and if Pershing "quivered with suspicion" he had ample grounds for his suspicion. But he didn't quiver from any other emotions — not so as you'd notice it.

After all our bragging about efficiency, we did slip in the matters of ordnance, airplanes, tanks, and, during the first few months, in transport service at the front. But there were certain elements in which we never failed — in man power and manhood and manly courage.

Uncle Sam in the Lion's Den.

EXCLUDING Britons and Scandinavians, ours remains almost the only important white race that hasn't a dictatorship or worse. And the high tide of communism laps these shores, which once we thought were insulated by time and distance against evil alien contacts.

We still stand aloof from entangling foreign alliances despite pressure from within and without, but no longer may we bar treasonable foreign propaganda — not with science making duck-ponds out of oceans. Moreover, sundry great powers work to turn out warplanes, capable of spanning a sea or a continent on a single hostile dash.

Isn't it about time we realized — we, the foolish virgin amongst the nations, who once fondly fancied this land was protected by its hemispheric isolation — that we're just about as isolated as Daniel was in the lion's den?

And Daniel had a miracle to fall back on!

Benevolence in Reverse.

BY EDICT Japan has deleted from her dictionary all mention of the "war." To the Koreans and the Chinese and the Manchurians these should indeed be tidings of great joy — to find out what's been violently happening to them was merely a benevolent brand of peace.

Even so, it's barely possible that some of the survivors of this neighborly friendship may still be like the distinguished American actor — I think it was Jack Barrymore — who went to a luncheon where the guest of honor, a notable from foreign parts, was, as the saying goes, rather chucking his weight about.

So Barrymore leaned over to a tablemate and whispered: "The gentleman seems to be something of a formidable ass, doesn't he?" "Oh, oh, I wouldn't go so far as to say that," said the other. "Well, at least," murmured Barrymore, "he'll do till one comes."

Great American Pests.

WHEN he's not working at his regular trade, I know now what becomes of the gentleman with the brainpan development of a Eotomac shad who makes a business of sitting at the ringside and yelling to some poor dub of a pugilist, while the latter is being whipped into a custard. "Go on, kid — he can't hurt you."

To show the other side of his nature, this party attends picture theaters and hisses madly as the likeness of the opposition presidential candidate is flashed on the screen.

Statistics show that his breed already numbers nearly two millions and is constantly increasing because, owing to a regrettable oversight of nature, this species spawns close to shore and the hatch all live.

Flower Traps Insects

The venus flytrap, whose leaves instantly close on insects that alight on the trigger hairs, is unaffected by any inanimate object that happens along, says Nature Magazine. Only live, struggling insects that strike the trigger hairs twice are the victims. However, the leaves of the plant will close or go to sleep under the influence of chloroform, and an overdose of the vapor will bring death.

Ancient Church Crosses

In some of the churches and missions of Spain and Portugal, as well as Mexico and California, exist great redwood crosses a century or more old, made by the pioneer padres who spread their gospel in Mendocino and cut these stupendous crosses. Also, in many parts of San Francisco are lone redwood remnants of a wooden city during and after the days of the gold rush.

History of Yarmouth

The history of Yarmouth, southwest gateway to Nova Scotia, is wound up in the history of the sea and it goes back far beyond the days when white men began settling in the new world in the sixteenth century, for at Yarmouth is a Runic stone which scholars say was inscribed in 1001 by Lief Erikson. The inscription on this stone is interpreted as reading "Lief to Erik's Raizes" (this monument, Lief Erikson, having dedicated it to his father, Erik the Red, ruler of Greenland).

Temperature of Trees

The internal temperature of trees, according to a scientist, generally lags 20 degrees behind the atmospheric temperature during spring and summer under normal conditions, and during winter is about 8 degrees warmer than the air temperature.

"Go to Jericho!"

When Mark Twain reached Jericho he said: "I am where my grandmother has wished me many a time." The origin of "Go to Jericho!" is wrapped in mystery. One explanation is that the neighborhood of Jericho is barren, mountainous and full of strait passes abounding with robbers in these days as in Biblical days, and going to Jericho was, and is, a hazardous ordeal.

(By J. Wellington Bumsted)

During the past few months resentments have been brewing against old Wellington. In due consideration of those who feel that they aren't being given justice, I have decided to list their grievances for public consideration.

First of all Otto Peterson very much resents being called "Tootsie". He firmly believes that it takes at least three inches off his official stature.

Our old friend Mr. Glover doesn't like the numerous hunting and fishing stories printed about his prowess along those lines. He says I don't make him even one half as good as he really is.

The Hanson Cafe counter hoppers resent being called "Merry Widows".

Emil Niederer so resented being advertised as starting the parting-the-hair-in-the-middle style that he reverted to the old style of combing his hair on the side.

Last, but not least, there is the case of Mr. Mills, who says that when the column said he was leaving for New York, about three-fourths of the community rushed in to bid him goodbye.

If Oscar Goss thinks that Old Toots is such a sure-fire remedy, why doesn't he try a little as a hair stimulator? It might give it an excellent shine.

Understand some of the Hanson Cafe gals are making pretty good headway at the Horecraze dances. Over a hundred couples have been in the line of spending a hilarious evening there, with most of the gentle men collecting around the H. C. girls

ELECTION TUESDAY, NOV. 3 1936

Notice To Crawford County Voters

The Board of Election Commissioners of Crawford County have been requested by Theodore Leslie, Democratic Nominee for County Treasurer, to remove his name from the ballot for the reason that he does not desire to be a candidate for that office. Under the law as it now stands we cannot remove his name from the ballot because the request was not made within the time limited by law.

Charles E. Moore,

Axel M. Peterson,

William Ferguson,

Board of Election Commissioners

Mr. Leslie's letter is as follows:

Grayling, Michigan
Sept. 23, 1936Axel M. Peterson,
County Clerk

Dear Mr. Peterson:

As a member and officer of Crawford County Agricultural Conservation Association I have been informed that persons who become a candidate for a County office is eligible to serve as a committeeman or officer of this Association. Therefore I beg and hope that the Board of Election Commissioners will withdraw my name from the ballot.

If the case was that an officer of this Association could be a candidate for a County office it would be felt by many of those that I get in contact daily that I was not doing justice to them. For their protection as well as mine I trust you will withdraw my name.

Very truly yours,

Theodore Leslie.

NEW RURAL ELECTRIFICATION PLAN APPROVED

The Michigan Public Service Company filed a petition in July with the Michigan Public Utilities Commission requesting approval of a new rural electrification plan, and recently the Company received an order from the Utilities Commission approving the rural extension policy.

The plan provides that the Company will extend rural electric service lines at its own expense where there are five or more prospective customers, who will guarantee to pay a minimum amount per month for electrical energy.
